CORONA PRECAUTIONS: STÄDEL MUSEUM TEMPORARILY CLOSED FROM 2 NOVEMBER

Frankfurt am Main, 30 October 2020. The Städel Museum will be closed from 2 November, prospectively until and including 7 March 2021. The Städel is thus observing the official precautionary measures to contain the corona pandemic.

We will inform you of further developments in due time.

Tickets already purchased for the Städel Museum collection and the exhibition “Passion for Pictures: Netherlandish Drawings of the Eighteenth Century” (until 18 April 2021) will retain their validity. If you wish to return your tickets, please contact the museum by e-mail at besucherdienst@staedelmuseum.de.

Over the coming weeks, you can enjoy the Städel in the comfort of your own home. Use our wide range of digital offers: from the online course on modern art and the digital collection to a tablet game for kids and the podcast series FINDING VAN GOGH. For further information, see digital.staedelmuseum.de.

Stay in contact with us by way of the social media channels Instagram, Facebook, Twitter and YouTube: @staedelmuseum #StaydelAtHome.

Publications and selected gift items from our museum shop are available at: shop.staedelmuseum.de.
